

Active Peace: A Mindful Path to a Nonviolent World

Table of Contents

Forward

Preface

Introduction

Part One: Mapping the Territory

Chapter One: The Inner Context of Psychological Experience

A Worldview Based on Separateness

The Agrarian Shift

The Influence of Christian Beliefs in Separation

The Scientific Revolution

A Life-Denying Worldview

The Human/Nature Split

The Human/Spirit Split

Beyond the Belief in Separateness

Living Into the Truth of Interbeing

Chapter Two: Outer Context of Society, Culture, and Environment

The Lens of Crisis

Evidence of Industrial Society's Collapse

Fossil Fuel Dependence and Climate Change

Damage to the Biosphere

War and the Culture of Violence

The Lens of Opportunity (The Great Turning)

Chapter Three: Growing Up Together

Holding the Paradox

The Path of Restoration

Four Foundations of Active Peace and a Nonviolent World

Part Two: The Path of Restoration

Chapter Four: Restoring Our Relationship to Self

Intention as First Step

Self-Awareness and Self-Acceptance

Vulnerability

Shadow and Projection

Chapter Five: Restoration's Foundation: Mindfulness

Meditation: Cultivating Basic Sanity

The Fearful Brain

The Benefits of Mindfulness

Rediscovering the Wisdom of Our Bodies

Basic Goodness

The Transpersonal Dimensions of Mindfulness

Chapter Six: Restoring Our Relationship to Nature

Consequences of the Human/Nature Split

Mindfulness and Nature-Based Practice

Participation and Reciprocity

Evidence for the Healing Benefits of Nature

Chapter Seven: Beyond the Human/Nature Split

Honoring Otherness

Expanding the View of Nature and Wildness

Creating Better Stories

Chapter Eight: Restoring Our Interpersonal Relationships

Building on the Foundations

The Need for Training and Tools

Chapter Nine: Relationship Skills and Tools

Feelings, Needs, and the Deep Longing

Understanding Triggers

Resourcing Ourselves

Noticing Judgments

The Drama Triangle

Restorative Communication

Empathy and Deep Listening

Mindful Speech

Chapter Ten: Transforming Conflict

Restorative Justice

The Five R's of Restorative Justice

Holding the High Ground

Intimate Relationships

Chapter Eleven: Restoring Our Relationship to the World

Embracing Openness, Compassion, and Love

Activism as Restorative Practice

Mourning, Support, and Real Empowerment

The Integrative Function of Activism

The Shadow Side of Activism

Chapter Twelve: Restorative Activism

Three Capacities

Not Knowing

Bearing Witness

Compassionate Action

Restorative Justice Unleashed

Consistent Nonviolence

Acknowledgements

Notes

About the Author